Focus on what you want

I often plan this game to remind myself of this truth:

- 1. Take 30 seconds to look around the room and memorize everything that is green.
- 2. Close your eyes.
- 3. Now tell me everything that is blue.

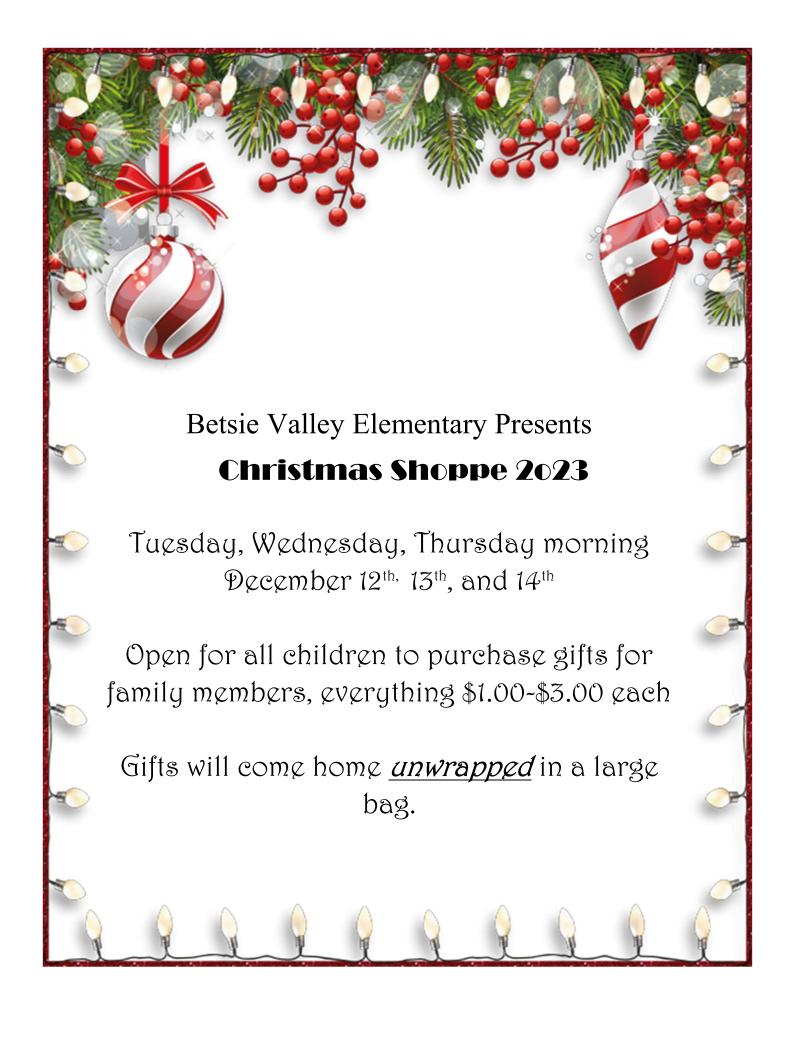

You get the point. There is likely both green and blue things in the room. It all depends on what you focus on.

Ever buy a new blue van and all of a sudden there seem to be many blue vans on the road? It all depends on what you focus on.

During this season, there will be many things to focus on. Choose wisely. Enjoy every day and notice the good and have a happy holiday!
